

Montana's Connecting to Collections Online Workshop

Preservation Management in Montana: YOU are the First Responder for your Collections

The Montana "Connecting to Collections" project is bringing up-to-the-minute preservation training to Montana archives, historical societies, local governments, libraries and museums.

Join Leigh A. Grinstead of LYRASIS for this free, online workshop: Friday, December 10th, 1:00-3:00 p.m. MST. This workshop is designed to be interactive and engaging!

To register contact jonathan.robinson@lyrasis.org

WORKSHOP AGENDA

Introductions--interactive

Connecting to Collections Statewide Initiative in Montana--update

Preservation Resources--activity

Preservation Activities, Risks and Responsibilities—lecture, video, response

Creating a Protective Storage Environment: Low-Cost/No-Cost Solutions—video

Preservation Priorities in MT—vote

Planning and Sources for Funding Preservation Projects—lecture and discussion